

Northeast Regional Coyote Hunt

$2000 Grand Prize

January 30, 31, February 1, 2026

Sponsored by District 9, Pa. Trappers Assn.

$2000 grand prize will be awarded to the hunter with the heaviest coyote. Also, a $250 daily prize will be awarded for the heaviest coyote weighed in each day, and $100 will be awarded for all other coyotes turned in during the hunt. This year's hunt will be paying a heaviest female cash prize. The cash amount will be determined by multiplying the number of registrations in the hunt by $2.

Weigh-in will be held at the Hop Bottom Fire Co., 150 S. Center St., Hop Bottom, Pa. 18824, from 12:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Friday & Saturday, 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM on Sunday. WEIGH-IN ENDS AT 2:00 PM SHARP ON SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1. Note the entry fee has gone down to $32 / $42 respectively.

Coyotes taken on the 3 days of the hunt in Bradford, Susquehanna, Wayne, Wyoming, Lackawanna, Pike, Luzerne and Sullivan Counties may be entered for weigh-in. Coyotes may be taken by HUNTING ONLY. NO TRAPPED OR CABLE-RESTRAINED COYOTES ALLOWED. Pennsylvania Game Commission regulations must be strictly adhered to, which means the use of cellular game cameras and electronic tracking devices is not allowed. Coyotes must be taken by fair chase / stalk methods. In case of a tie, the first coyote weighed in wins. All members of a hunting party must be registered in the hunt. All coyotes entered become the property of the Hunt Committee. The hunter who makes the kill must present the coyote for registration. The Hunt Committee may not award prizes for up to 7 days after the hunt ends to allow review of the animals and verification of rules compliance. An autopsy may be done on animals the Hunt Committee deems suspicious. By paying the entry fee the hunter agrees that the decision of the Hunt Committee is final, and that his/her coyote may be subjected to scientific study (ies). Any infractions will result in immediate disqualification of the hunter(s) involved, and all prize monies and entry fees will be forfeited. No coyotes will be accepted if they have been altered to increase weight.

There will be no weigh-in dinner this year, but the Hop Bottom Fire Co. will have food items available for purchase from 10:00 until 2:30 on Sunday for those who would like to show up to see the weigh-in results

$32 early entry fee (due by January 12) will cover the 3 days of the hunt. $42 late registration fee is required after January 12. Registrations must be postmarked by January 27. Clip the registration form below and send along with a check or money order made out to Pa. Trappers Assn. District 9. Mail to: Northeast Regional Coyote Hunt, Attn: Dave Cyr, 266 Sanitarium Hill Road, Mainesburg, PA 16932
